

For Immediate Release

Clayton Richter, Foundation Homes, EARNS GRADUATE MASTER BUILDER EDUCATIONAL DESIGNATION

Houston, November 22, 2011 – Clayton Richter, of Foundation Homes has become one of a select group of professional home builders nationwide to attain the Graduate Master Builder (GMB) designation, identifying him as one of the building industry's top professionals.

Administered by National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) Education, the GMB program is sponsored locally by [The Greater Houston Homebuilders Association].

"I'm very excited to earn this prestigious designation," said Clayton. "The curriculum will allow me to provide better services, construction techniques, and products for my clients."

To qualify for the GMB designation program, a builder must have attained either the Certified Graduate Builder (CGB) or Certified Graduate Remodeler (CGR) designations and have five years of building industry experience or have successfully completed an additional three NAHB-approved courses and have at least 10 years of industry experience.

GMB graduates complete an intensive series of courses on how to capitalize on business opportunities, executive-level financial management, managing risk in an evolving market and other building industry topics.

Foundation Homes builds custom homes in the Houston, Cypress, Katy, and Tomball areas. They also offer remodeling services, design-builds, outdoor kitchen and living areas, consulting services, and a build-on-your lot home building program.
